TRI-VALLEY COMMUNITY TV AIRS 2010 ELECTION FORUMS

PLEASANTON, CA – Are you still undecided about who to vote for in the upcoming November election? Tune in to Tri-Valley Community TV (TVCTV) as candidates running for election in the Tri-Valley races share their views on Channel 28, 29 and 30. TVCTV moderator Carolyn Siegfried, provides each candidate with an opportunity to make opening and closing statements as well as answer questions about issues relating to their races. For complete air dates and times, visit the Tri-Valley TV website at <http://www.tri-valleytv.org/www.tri-valleytv.org>. In addition, forums may be accessed via Video on Demand anytime on our website by clicking on the "Election 2010" banner on the front page of our site. DVDs may also be purchased on the web site.

“Tri-Valley residents have come to rely on Tri-Valley Community TV as their source for local election coverage,” said veteran political reporter Carolyn Siedgried. “We provide an opportunity for our viewers to hear and see each of the candidates. What’s unique this year is having the forums available on our web site on Video on Demand,” she said.

Taped at the Tri-Valley TV studio, the forums highlight the following races:

Pleasanton Mayoral Election
San Ramon Valley General Plan
Pleasanton City Council
Dublin City Council

Dublin San Ramon Services District
Livermore Area Recreation Parks Department
Livermore School Board
Pleasanton School Board
San Ramon Valley School Board
