

Award winning High School Football Coverage on TV30 Starting 10/17

PLEASANTON, CA. - (10.1.15) – It's high school football season and TV30 has all the local action. TV30 will broadcast four high school football games on Saturday nights at 7 p.m. starting 10/17 with the California High at Amador Valley High School varsity game. Watch it broadcasting on Comcast TV30 and AT&T U-Verse and on the station's website at tv30.org.

"This is our seventh year of televising local schools varsity football games," said Melissa Tench-Stevens Executive Director at TV30. "Only Tri-Valley TV covers all aspects of the experience. It is a great time in the lives of the students and due to technology it can be shared with relatives all over the world by clicking onto our station."

Play by play and color announcing will include TV30 sports personalities Ian Bartholomew, George "Dr. B" Baljevich, Tim Sbranti plus a high school field reporter. Interviews during the game will include coaches, players, principals, students, Mayors and more.

The games below will be airing on TV30 at 7 p.m. on Saturday night:

October 17	California @ Amador
October 24	Monte Vista @ Granada
October 31	Dougherty Valley @ Dublin
November 7	Amador @ Foothill

Several days later the game will be available to view anytime via video on demand at tv30.org. DVDs of the games may also be purchased by going to the website@ tv30.org.
